

Rubric for Student Presentations – World History

This rubric will be used for all student presentations in World History.

Keep your presentation short. Don't include unnecessary information. Use slides mainly to illustrate what you teach – don't fill slides with words.

Your presentation will be filmed. Some presentations will include a research paper to turn in, others will not.

Grading Rubric

Criteria	A	B	C	D
Nonverbal
Eye Contact	Looks at someone or scans the class at all times	Occasionally looks at someone or group	Only focuses attention to one particular part of the class	Does not attempt to look at the class, reads notes the entire time.
Facial Expression	Expression is appropriate to the content	Occasional conflicting expressions	Occasional deadpan look and conflicting expressions	No expression and/or conflicting expression
Topic Announced	Clearly explains what the presentation is about	Tells class what presentation is about	Vaguely tells class what the presentation is about	Class has no idea what the presentation is about
Visual Aid	Enhances presentation and keeps class interest	A bit too much information/somewhat enhances presentation	Too much information/cluttered/unclear	Poorly done, distracting, hard to read/understand
Professionalism	Student is organized and the interest level of the class is maintained	Thoughts articulated clearly, though does not engage the class	Thoughts don't flow, not clear, does not engage the class	Mumbles, class has difficulty hearing, confusing presentation